Dear Mr. Yeung,

Letter of Appreciation

I would like to express our sincere thanks to your donation of HK$11,087.11 from the fundraising function of your respectable Company to Hong Chi Children Home for supporting the children's facilities and training programs.

With your generous support, we have been able to provide subsidized programs and training to our children with mild grade mental handicap for developing their potentials and building up their self-confidence. Moreover, we can purchase toys and children's books for enriching their quality of life. We cordially welcome you all to continue to visit us.

It is our pleasure to thank you and extend our heartfelt appreciation for your donation showing your love and care to our children. Your donation will surely enhance the quality of life of the children. We look forward to your continuous support in the future.

Yours sincerely,

Alice Kin
Manager
